“ I was so blessed to be Nina's pastor for the past year in Marlow, OK! Her joyful, loving heart impacted our lives at Marlow Cumberland Presbyterian Church! She brought Godly wisdom to our Bible studies and much joy to all of us! When you encountered Nina, you encountered Jesus because she displayed His character so well! We miss her dearly! Rick & Crystal, you will remain in our prayers and in our hearts! We love you! Pastor Terra Sisco & your Church Family

“ Nina was one of a kind and could come up with stuff off the top of her head. For example she was with me one day and i had to stop by a friend's house, she wasn't home so i was just gonna put a simple note on her door. But instead Nina came up with to write I was here and you was gone
I left my name to turn you on
Those who knew me knew me well
Those who didn't can go straight to h*ll
Nina you will be missed from plenty, Love you Girl

“ Nina's smile and laugh came straight from her heart! She loved her family and friends so big! She loved God and wasn't shy about letting you know. She was so easy to talk with, and in fact sometimes we took too much time up at work to finish our conversations. We love Jesus too, so I know we will see her again in heaven. Praying for Rick, Crystal, grandson Stephen and the rest of her family.

“ I can remember one night when we lived in Schulter and my dad worked as a cab driver in Okmulgee. She went to go pick him up one night from work and me and my brother were in bed, and she thought she could make it back home intime before it stormed. Boy was wrong qhen she got to Schulter she noticed the lights were out and told my dad they were in trouble. Sure enough when they walked through the door I said don't ever do that again and my poor brother said I didn't know what happened she just came and woke me up and made me sit with her. That was one of my funniest memories with my mom.

“ The memory that I have been stuck on since Ninas' passing. Is at her Momma's funeral when she sang Wayfaring Stranger as her Momma had requested. Her voice cracked with pain but it was beautiful as she sang, I'am a poor wayfaring stranger traveling through this life of woe. I'm going home to see my Father never more to roam. Those words fit her now. She is home with Father God and her Momma who was the most Godly person I have ever known. I know they are having a glorious family reunion, Nina, her Momma, and brothers.

“ Although I haven't been in touch with Nina for many years I still consider her one of the best friends I've ever had. We certainly had some adventures together when our children were young. I still remember her infectious laugh. Sending peace and love to Crystal , Delphia and everyone mourning the loss of such a special person. Rest in paradise Nina!
