“ One of my favorite memories of my aunt Sherry (this is the name we knew her by) was when I was a preteen or young teen and was visiting the family in Oklahoma (we lived in New Mexico). Rhonda took myself and my cousin, Carrie, to Oklahoma City for some reason and we all three literally laughed the entire trip. I had so much fun and loved her very much. I learned a funny phrase from her that I still repeat to this day, which is "tough titty said the kitty".

“ *No matter the miles between us:
Always my sister in love...
Always my first Oklahoma friend...
Shared all she could about becoming Jones, saw me thru the best and worst times...
I loved Rhonda for her spirit and beautiful soul. Prayers for comfort to all those who loved her 🙏😭🌈🙏*

“ I grew up with Rhonda. Our fathers worked together and our parents would get together to play cards. Many years later we worked together at Okemah City Hall. Rhonda always knew what was happening in town and I can't tell you the number of times she would pay someone's water bill in order to keep the service on because she knew a family member has passed or was in the hospital. She always had a big bowl of popcorn at her desk. One day a lady came in, asked Rhonda if she could have some popcorn and walked out the door with the whole bowl. That was one of the few times I saw Rhonda speechless.
