“ *Hello,
I was a friend of Ricks. He and my mom worked together in OK City.
She was a draftsmen with him.
She introduced me to him as she was very fond of him. Rick and I had correspondence for awhile until he got married. Then I lost touch.
My mom Effie Barrett and I were very fond of Rick. He was a very kind and sweet person. Very talented too.
We looked him up again in the early 80's. Came to see him in Ada.
Lost touch again.
I came to Tahlequah the first of October and decided to try to find him again. That is when I heard the sad news.
Our thoughts and prayers are with your family.
