“ I entered the Sanford family after a lot of Steve’s older family members that he loved dearly and talks about so much had already passed. Gary and Brunell were still alive and we spent some family time with them on holidays and such. All of the family is great and loved dearly but Roland was my favorite. The Roland I knew was the biggest jokester and was always fun to be around. We were always laughing. Of course he lived the longest and I knew him the best. I checked on him and visited him when he wasn’t doing to good in the hospital and he still managed to joke and cut up with me. He had a good life, lived a long time and was totally at peace with his life. What a good man he was and I will miss him!

“ Rolland was such a vital part of the Nazarene Church for years. Excellent Sunday School teacher, board member, sang in the choir. It was always special when he and Bruenell sang a duet. Always faithful! He will be missed but I know he's rejoicing to be with Jesus and those he loved so much. Remembering the family in prayer.

“ Sorry Kellie. He was a good man. I can still remember walking into that feed store and being greeted by your parents when I was a little kid. They will always be remembered as being kind. Hugs to you Kellie.

“ I have known the Ellis family all my growing up years in town and at church. Know Roland and Burrell are so at peace with each other, the rest of the Ellis family and our Saviour. Thank you for your examples in Christ that encouraged me the first 18 years of my life.
