I am so very sorry to hear of Sharon's passing and so suddenly after Dale. I remember spending time at their house when I was a kid, playing with the girls. Both were good neighbors. My thoughts are with you all.

“ Sharron was my very best friend when we were growing up on the farm. We lived just a few miles apart and spent a lot of summer hours together. We played ping pong in her basement, made a playhouse in the what I remember was a chicken house. We'd sneak some of her dad's whiskey and 7-up and cigarettes and pretend that we were grown up. (Sorry Edgar and Florence) We also played and waded in the cattle pond north of the house. She tried to teach me how to ride a horse, but I let go of the reins and held on for dear life as the horse took off. It stopped at the corral and I went over the horse and onto the ground. She was laughing and I was crying! The only time I ever tried to ride, but know she rode a lot. I will always cherish the good times we had and was so sorry to hear of her passing. I have always wondered where she and Dale lived and tried to find her several times. I haven't seen her since her mother's funeral in Norton. Please accept my condolences to you and your family.
