“ *Shirley, Phil and I met at her apartment just a few weeks ago on a casual visit. Full of life and quite happy with having downsized and having meals made available for her around the clock. She deserved it and much more. Phil watched over her to the very end, as you would imagine. No greater love between siblings than what they shared. I wish her well on the rest of her journey. Hello im Audra Leonard I was Kevins girl friend for 16yrs and I remember him saying that his mother's head stone was all misspelled then he went to lay beside her so fast I'm not sure this was taken care of , her headstone should be correct she deserves that for sure we all do.
