Dana and Jimmie the picture I posted was from a wonderful time when all of us cousins were together, except for Robert, he was too young. Your brother was a great big brother back then and an even better man. Words cannot take away the hurt, but know that Steve brought lots of joy and smiles to all those he came in touch with. May the sweet memories, pictures, and visits bring you comfort and a smile. This picture made me smile this morning. Love to you all, Debbie Gann Benson

*Amber, Eli, Sister & Family...
As you know Steve was such a GOOD MAN !! Never turned his back to any person, always there to help in any way, had kind words to say & can make a person laugh & smile. He enjoyed life, but most of all enjoyed his grandbabies. Steve touched million of hearts in his path, and those millions will greatly missed him! I know I sure will My last visit with Steve was when he came into Rocky's talking to Sharon & I, speaking about his being the Santa Claus at the bank & school!! He made us laugh, something he really enjoyed doing for the childrens. Now he is doing much better, no pains, no worries, enjoying his walk in Heaven on the streets of GOLD !!! Steve will live forever in our hearts with good memories!!!
