“There aren't any words that can adequately express the sadness from hearing of Tom's passing. With each tear I think of of all the wonderful and crazy times we had together. He'll be remembered with much laughter and love. He was a friend. Tom was definitely one of a kind and the world won't be the same without him. My sincerest sympathies for those closest to him and prayers in their time of grief. Please know that Tom will not be forgotten by this old friend. ~ Jim Kinney”
