“ I met Vickie when I was a young military wife at Altus AFB. Her husband and my husband were in the same squadron. I spent many evenings at their house. Vickie and Steve weren't just my friends, they were my family, as I was far far far away from home and everyone I knew. Vickie took care of all of us. I will miss her sweet, kind, loving spirit. She was an angel here on earth. Fly free, sweet angel. We will meet again.

I met Vickie through my good friend Coyeta. We had some fun "girl times". Vickie was there to help Coyeta during the passing of her husband Sam. I too have her and her friends and family in my prayers and thankful she is at peace now.

“ Vickie was one of the bravest strongest ladies I have ever met. She is a hero in my eyes. She loved whole heartedly and was kind to everyone. She ran her race, finished her course, and now a crown of righteousness awaits her. One more reason to make heaven our final destination. Lots of loved ones up there.
