“ Chicken has been a part of my life for as long as I can remember. I don't know if he adopted us or if we adopted him but he became a brother to all of us. He always called mom and daddy, mom and pops. We lost touch with him when he moved from Arizona to Oklahoma. Who would of thought that we would all end up together again in Henryetta Oklahoma.. He sure was a blessing to us when Daddy was sick.. He would call or come by to check on them and do whatever they needed him too. He was even at the hospital when Daddy passed. He continued to make sure mom was OK right up to a few days before he passed. We are so blessed he was a part of our family. Rest easy brother we are gonna miss you ❤️

“ To my older brother even though we were not brothers by blood, we are brothers in souls. We have been together from our younger years at queen creek elementary school, into high school in Chandler. We were always there for each other in good and bad times. From all the crazy adventures we had, down to the work we did together on the farms in our little town. You were up for all my crazy ideas to make money. When we started trucking and then hay company or what about the cotton rude company you never said anything, you were just there by my side. You always had my back. When you moved to Oklahoma I thought I lost my brother but you called about once a week and we would talk for an hour or so and it was like you were right there with me again and every time we'd hang up you say love you brother. I'll never forget you brother and like I said last week save me a place right beside you. Love you DAVID VIRGIL LEE.

“ There will never be another man like him. He was the greatest man I've ever known. He was my uncle by blood but he raised me like I was his own daughter. There was never a moment he was not there for me. To say I am going to miss him is an understatement, life definitely will not be the same without him in it. He had a huge heart and would help anyone. If you had the pleasure of knowing him it was a blessing.

I love you Uncle David

“ I knew him as Chicken Lee. His nickname he has had for many years. I loved him so much. He meant the world to me and my husband. He was like a brother to my husband. Anytime we needed him or Eddie called him, he was always there. No hesitation. He was such a sweet man. Funny, witty, him and Eddie always giving each other a hard time. Lol. He will surely be missed. It was such a blessing for us to see Chicken Lee baptized before he got really sick. Our Pastor Tony Haley came over to our house, we filled up a trough and baptized him in Jesus' name. No more pain Chicken Lee. Love you Lil man. A place in my heart is now empty. You will NEVER be forgotten. Love you sweetie. Diane Crewse
